1 WHEREAS, Plaintiffs alleged in the Complaint claims against Defendants for: (i)
2 trademark counterfeiting under 15 U.S.C. § 1114; (ii) trademark infringement under 15 U.S.C. §
3 1114; (iii) common law trademark infringement; (iv) false designation of origin and false
4 advertising under 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a); (v) violation of the Washington Consumer Protection
5 Act, RCW 19.86.010, et seq.; (vi) trademark dilution under 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c); and (vii) breach
6 of contract (the claims are referred to, collectively, as the “Claims”);

7 WHEREAS, Plaintiffs and Defendants have agreed to resolve their dispute, and now wish
8 to stipulate to this Consent Judgment and Permanent Injunction;

9 WHEREAS, Plaintiffs and Defendants now stipulate and consent to this Consent
10 Judgment and Permanent Injunction, to its prompt entry by the Court, and to each and every 11 provision, order, and decree herein;

12 NOW THEREFORE, Plaintiffs and Defendants hereby stipulate to and request that the 13 Court order the following Consent Judgment and Permanent Injunction:

14 IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, AS FOLLOWS:

15 1. The Court has personal jurisdiction over each of the parties to this action. The 16 Court also has subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1121 and 28
17 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338(a).

18 2. On March 7, 2023, Plaintiffs filed a Complaint against Defendants in this action
19 asserting the Claims.

20 3. At the time the Complaint was filed and at the time of Defendants’ alleged 21 wrongful conduct, Johnson & Johnson owned the following registered trademarks (the “Tylenol
22 Trademarks”), all of which are valid, unrevoked, and subsisting, and which constitute prima
23 facie evidence of Johnson & Johnson’s exclusive ownership of the marks during all relevant
24 periods:

Mark	Reg. No.	International Class / Goods &amp; Services (excerpt)
TYLENOL	890,360	5. Analgesic Antipyretic Preparations
	5,391,243	5. Analgesics and pain relievers; preparations for treating coughs and colds; analgesic sleeping aid; and allergy and sinus medication

4. Plaintiffs allege that Defendants advertised, offered, distributed, and sold counterfeit repackaged Tylenol® Extra Strength 50 pouches of 2 caplets each in the Amazon.com store (“Amazon Store”), in violation of Amazon’s policies, the J&J Entities’ intellectual property rights, and the law. Plaintiffs further allege that the actions of Defendants constitute trademark counterfeiting, trademark infringement, trademark dilution and false advertising under the Lanham Act, violate the Washington Consumer Protection Act and constitute breach of contract.

5. Amazon blocked Defendants from the Amazon Store due to Defendants’ sale of counterfeit and infringing products. Prior to filing this action, Amazon informed Defendants of the alleged infringing nature of their products, and questioned Defendants regarding the source of the Tylenol products at issue in this Action. Defendants did not honestly inform Amazon of their suppliers of the Tylenol products, and stated that their supplier was a single source when they knew that was not the case. Defendants further supplied Amazon with an inauthentic invoice as a purported source of their Tylenol products, which they knew was false.

6. Defendants acknowledge that they sold Tylenol® Extra Strength 50 pouches of 2 caplets each that consisted of pills originally manufactured by Johnson & Johnson Consumer Inc. repackaged in counterfeit pouches and cartons bearing the Tylenol Trademarks. Defendants contend that they were unaware that the packaging was counterfeit, and further contend that they were not the manufacturer of any such repackaged Tylenol® products.

7. The repackaged Tylenol® Extra Strength 50 pouches of 2 caplets each that Defendants sold were not endorsed or authorized by the J&J Entities. The packaging of the

1 repackaged Tylenol® Extra Strength 50 pouches of 2 caplets each lacked the J&J Entities' strict
2 safety measures, lacked relevant information regarding the product such as the correct lot codes
3 and expiration dates, and failed to disclose to consumers that the products have been repackaged
4 by a party that was not the original manufacturer or otherwise affiliated in any way with the J&J
5 Entities.

6 8. The use of the Tylenol Trademarks on the repackaged Tylenol® Extra Strength
7 50 pouches of 2 caplets each that Defendants sold created the erroneous impression that those
8 repackaged products were authorized and approved by the J&J Entities, even though they were 9 not.

10 9. Amazon's Business Solutions Agreement, which Defendants entered into with 11 Amazon.com Services LLC in order to sell products in the Amazon Store, prohibits the sale of 12 counterfeit products and the submission to Amazon of inaccurate, false, or misleading
13 information and documents.

14 10. Defendants' sale of the repackaged Tylenol® Extra Strength 50 pouches of 2
15 caplets each, has caused, and unless enjoined by this Court will continue to cause, serious and 16 irreparable injury to Plaintiffs, for which they have no adequate remedy at law.

17 11. The Parties represent that they have read this Consent Judgment and Permanent
18 Injunction, entered into it voluntarily, and have had the opportunity to seek the advice of counsel
19 prior to their consent to this Judgment.

20 NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, AS 21 FOLLOWS:

22 12. The Court enters Final Judgment as follows: (i) in favor of the J&J Entities
23 against Defendants for trademark counterfeiting and trademark infringement under 15 U.S.C.
24 § 1114; (ii) in favor of the J&J Entities against Defendants for common law trademark
25 infringement; (iii) in favor of the J&J Entities against Defendants for false designation of origin
26 and false advertising under 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a); (iv) in favor of Amazon against Defendants for 27 false designation of origin and false advertising under 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a); (v) in favor of the

 27 or

(vii) assisting, aiding, or abetting any other person or business entity in engaging in or performing any of the activities referred to in subparagraphs (i) through (vi) above;

14. The Court further orders that Plaintiffs recover from Defendants, jointly and severally, the amount of $1,000,000 in damages for trademark infringement and false designation of origin under the Lanham Act under 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a), violation of the Washington Consumer Protection Act, RCW 19.86.010, et seq., and breach of contract, inclusive of all prejudgment interest, attorneys' fees, and costs.

15. The above amounts shall bear interest at the statutory rate prescribed by 28 U.S.C. § 1961 from the date of entry.

16. The Court shall retain exclusive personal and subject matter jurisdiction to enforce the terms of this Judgment and Permanent Injunction.

17. Each party shall bear its attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with this matter.

18. Upon entry of this Judgment and Permanent Injunction, this action is hereby dismissed with prejudice.
